RESUME'66

Older men declare war. But it is youth that must fight and die. And it is youth who must inherit the tribulation, the sorrow, and the triumphs that are the aftermath of war.

Herbert Hoover

To the American troops fighting in South Vietnam, we, the Senior class of nineteen hundred and sixty-six, do proudly dedicate this annual. Their courage, stamina, and enthusiasm in times such as these provide a challenge for all Americans to strive for a better, brighter future.

Class Will

I, MARCIA KING, will my ability to forget everything I am told in five seconds to Diana Greer.

I, LINDA REYNOLDS, will my ability to remember everything Marcia forgets to RaNae.

I, BRUCE OWENS, hereby will all of my great coordination to Stan Gildersleeve.

I, JAMIE MARRON, will my dedication to Student Council and all I've gotten from it to Mark Dorsey.

I, MARILYN DIVAN, will my ability to do ornery things and not get caught to Bev Cherry.

I, STEVE PRUIETT, will my brain to the first person that finds it.

I, ED HUNT, will my ability to get along with Em and stay in the front seat of the bus to Mike Jarvis.

I, PEGGY PRICHARD, will my Sunday afternoons in Rantoul to anyone who wants to have fun. Right, Ann A.?

I, AGNES DORSEY, will my ability to go with two boys at the same time and get caught to Susan Dorsey.

I, JANIS TUCKER, will my best friend, Janet Downing, the ability not to get caught sneaking around.

I, ILENE SCHLUTER, will a new lid for the girls' locker room.

I, PAT COAKLEY, with the sweetest of intentions, will to Mr. Kidoguchi a pair of ear plugs for the drum section.

I, NANCY OWEN, will Sandy Learned a whole set of alphabet pins so she won't have to use Kay's

I, BARBARA OSTERBUR, will my quiteness to Maureen Coder. Hold it down, Maureen!

I, ANN AHLF, will my Sunday afternoon homework to those who still believe that Sunday is a day of rest.

I, JANET RADAMACHER, will my ability to type at annual staff meetings to Jackie Richardson. Have fun!

I, CAROL JOHNSON, will all my fun (and problems) at annual staff meetings to Anita Schluter and Linda Solomon.

I, CINDY POWELL, will my ability to get into difficult situations, in which I don't belong, to Rosella.

I, ANN BOYLE, will all my good times in Potomac with the "Big Four" to Jackie Richardson.

I, ALAN SCHLUTER, will my ability to keep a cool temper, remain calm at all times, and mainly to keep out of trouble, to Arthur Schluter.

I, PAULA PUTNAM, will my place in the dance room to Karlene Hinrichs. Keep them swingin'!

I, MARCIA GORDON, will my great driving ability to Gail Ramm. Watch out for red trucks!

I, LINDA KARSKY, will my stubbornness to Danny Millis to help him out with a big problem this year.

I, GLORIA JEAN ASHCRAFT, will all my good times to the underclassmen of A.T.H.S.

I, JEAN CLAPP, will to Dianna and Donna Taylor my long bus ride home.

I, RODNEY PARRISH, will Jim Jones happier times in the future with a car full of trouble.

I, PAM GILDERSLEEVE, will to all the teachers a magnifying glass to read all my brothers' writing. Like sister, like brothers.

I, STEVE FRERICHS, will my ability to be good and quiet at all times and not get kicked out of the library to Jim Epley.

I, GUYLA LEARNED, will Mr. Settle a whistle to keep the kids quiet in the library. Good luck!

I, REX FRYE, will my ability to charm all the girls for the past four years to anyone with courage enough to take it.

I, JOHN EPLEY, will my ability to be a bully in second hour P.E. to Bob Dorsey.

I, MIKE SMITH, will Emerson Shumate the ability to drive my girl to and from school safely.

I, RODNEY HINRICHs, will my ability to keep my car in running condition to all hot rod underclassmen (Jim Jones).

I, CAROL WOLFE, will my ability not to study so hard to my sister, Debbie, so she will have more fun.

I, MARVIN ACKERMAN, will the spare parts from my '57 Chevy to Jim Jones.

I, SAM PARK, will my ability to make it to all the good old parties, wherever they may be, to Bev Cherry.

I, ROGENE CUNNINGHAM, will Janet Downing the ability to keep the streets in Rossville warm after 2:00 a.m. Watch out for Mr. Green, Jan.

I, JOHN HARRISON, will my ability to get into trouble to Tom James.

I, CASSIE NORVILLE, will my doubtful ability to get C's in typing class to Ruth Ann Crowe.

I, CHARLIE HEDRICK, will many more special hunting trips on Sunday afternoons to Steve Willard and Mike Gordan.

TO MRS. BACHMAN, we will a 9th hour English class with fewer complaints.

TO MRS. ROTIGEL, we will Art Classes with equipment that stays where it belongs.

TO MISS TOWNSEND, we leave a joke book to add to her collection.

TO MRS. SETCHEL, we will an aquarium for her Biology class.

TO MRS. EGOLF, we leave a sledge hammer to use at home.

TO MR. STUBY, we leave a Red Skelton joke book.

TO MRS. BEZELY, we leave a transparent map so that he can't hide his Civics quizzes behind it.

TO MR. HULFACHOR, we leave a holiday during any hunting season.

TO MR. KIDOGUCHI, we leave a chorus group that sings instead of talks.

TO MR. STAGEN, we leave a new checkered scorekeepers shirt because stripe shirts are obsolete.

TO MR. DE YOUNG, we will a lighter foot when he drives the bus.

TO MRS. ROBERTS, we leave a larger Shorthand II class.

TO MRS. TATE, we leave a new group of P.E. girls who like to do stunts.

TO MR. SETTLE, we will a Spanish-English dictionary so that he can talk to a certain person.

TO LEC, we will a smoother road between Armstrong and Potomac.

TO EM, we leave a new screwdriver so he can put his bus back together.

TO THE COOKS, we will a longer lunch hour.

TO MR. MC COLLEM, we leave a book of helpful hints on flirting.

TO BETTY KINNEY, we leave an errand boy so she won't have to make so many trips to study hall.

TO MR. HUSTED, we will our appreciation for his help and guidance.

TO THE SCHOOL BOARD, we leave the plans for a larger lunchroom and more food.

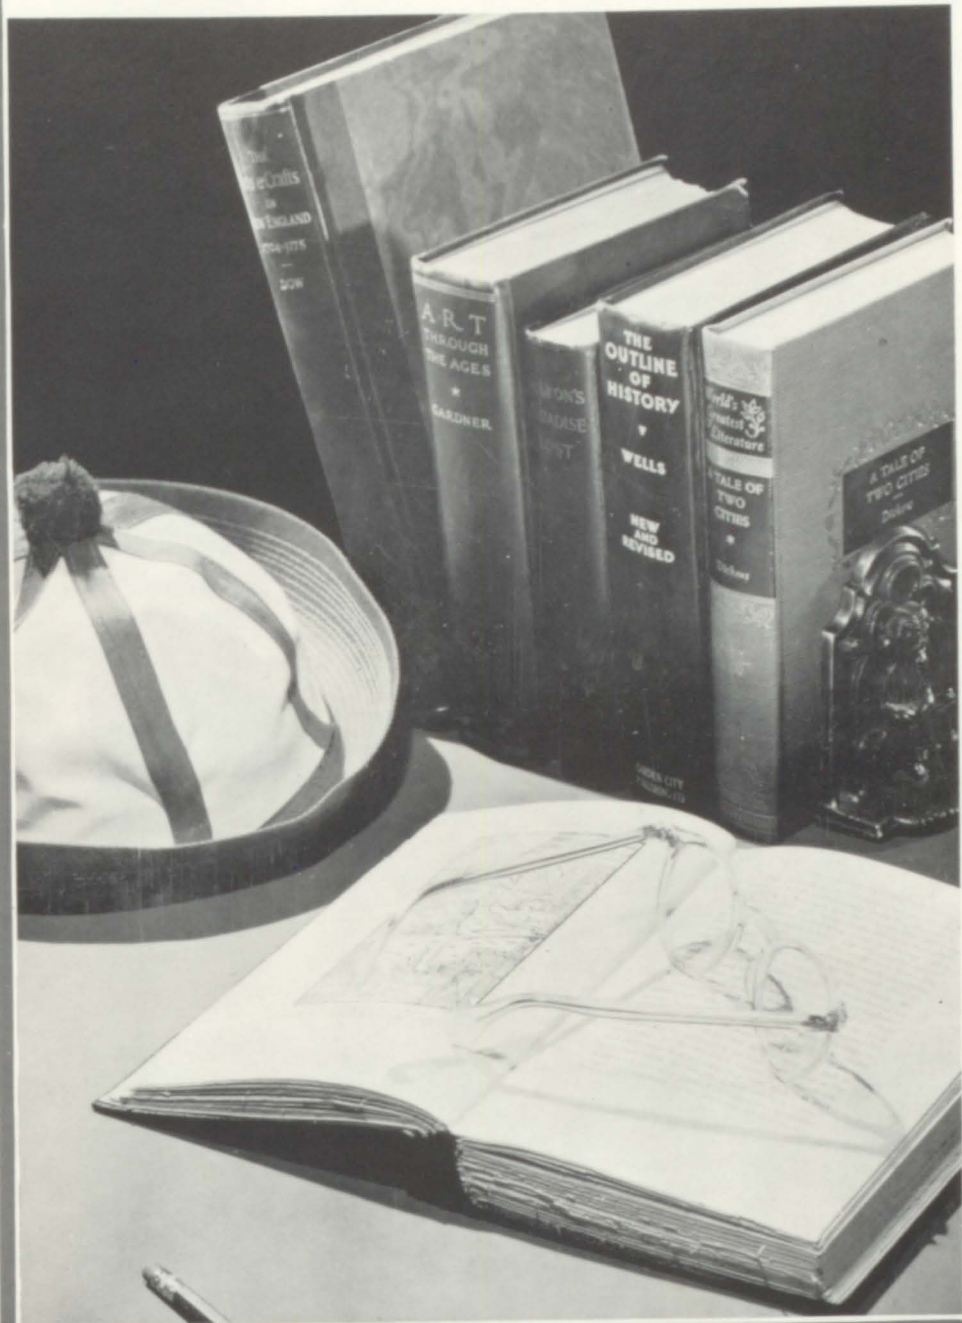

Class Prophecy

In the year 1984, STEVE PRUIETT, a famous archaeologist, upon exploring the ancient ruins along the Nile, discovered Aladdin's lamp. While rubbing the dust off the lamp, he heard a rumbling sound from within. Suddenly, REX FRYE popped out and said, "Your wish is my command." After recovering consciousness, Steve said, "My wish is to see my former classmates of 1966." So Rex turned into a flying carpet, and Steve began his journey.

While floating over Arabia, Steve glanced down and saw RODNEY HINRICHS trying to invent a humpless camel. Continuing his journey, he saw STEVE FRERICHs in Turkey hunting pheasants. Moving onward to Russia, we see BRUCE OWENS filming a new movie, "From Russia with Pam." PAM is portraying the secret agent. Flying over the Black Sea, we find ANN AHLF drilling for ink. Flying over Siberia, LINDA KARSKY is trying to tell Khrushchev, "Things could be worse." Continuing on to China, we find CHARLIE HEDRICK preaching birth control. Crossing Japan, we also find ROGENE CUNNINGHAM as a geisha girl. We slide over the Arctic and find MARCIA GORDON and AGNES DORSEY throwing snowballs at the abominable snowman. Crossing the Yukon, we find RODNEY PARRISH driving a team of dogs. Down the road, we see a sign that says "COAKLEY AND CLAPP, Igloos Inc." A little further down the road, we see CAROL WOLFE practicing dentistry for walruses. Crossing over the northern part of Canada, we watch GLORIA ASHCRAFT teaching American history to the Canadian Indians. Heading southward, we find MARILYN DIVAN off Niagara Falls. Crossing back over the Rockies, we see JOHN HARRISON and ALAN SCHLUTER prospecting for chewing gum.

In California, we find SAM PARK and MARCIA KING drag racing on the Sunset Strip. In Las Vegas, we see ED HUNT with his nose stuck in a roulette wheel, and PAULA PUTNAM wedged between two slot machines. CASSIE NORVILLE, owner, is trying to un-stick and un-wedge Ed and Paula. As we fly over Salt Lake City, we find BARBARA OSTERBUR taking samples from the lake for the Morton Salt Company. Crossing Pike's Peak, we hear ILENE SCHLUTER yodeling her theme song, "New Country Cornflakes." Passing over the Smokey Mountains, we find DANN PAYNE determined to out-smoke them. Downward to Texas, we find CAROL JOHNSON selling L.B.J. hats in hopes that he will return. Entering the state of Missouri, we see JANET RADAMACHER recording for the "Grand Ole Opera." In Mississippi, we find JAMIE MARRON, GUYLA LEARNED, and JANIS TUCKER protesting demonstrations. After Mississippi, we go to Milwaukee, Wisconsin and find JOHN EPLEY trying to produce a liquor without after affects. Going over our metropolis of Penfield, Rex tips his turban to the gas station attendant, LINDA REYNOLDS. As we fly over Broadway, we see NANCY OWEN under the lights--a stand-in to Wimpee. Flying over the Atlantic Ocean, we find MIKE SMITH trying to ride Flipper. Coming into Spain, we find CINDY POWELL as the world's greatest tortilla maker. Now to Italy, where we meet the architect, MARVIN ACKERMAN, trying to straighten the Leaning Tower of Pisa. PEGGY PRICHARD and ANN BOYLE have just left the vineyards with ingrown toenails from crushing grapes.

I return to Egypt--ending my archaeology adventure and allowing Rex to return to his beauty sleep.

SUPPLEMENT

The Armstrong Trojan's 1965-66 Basketball Season

The Armstrong Trojans opened their 1965-66 basketball season on November 16 by defeating the Hornets of East Lynn, 65 to 52. The Trojans turned in a similar performance against ABL on November 19, clinching that victory by twenty-one points, 64 to 43. After tumbling Rankin by fifteen, 56 to 41, in our Homecoming game, the Armstrong quintet marched on and dumped Potomac by a score of 74 to 59 and Georgetown by a mildly surprising eighteen points, 73 to 55. Still unbeaten, the potent Armstrong crew overcame a fourth quarter scoring surge and knocked off the favored St. Joseph-Odgen Spartans, 55 to 49. Then the Trojans moved to Rossville where they kept a perfect record by downing the Bobcats, 80 to 51. Armstrong swept the East Lynn Hornets, 75 to 57 in the Chrisman Holiday Tournament. The Trojans went on to a practically duplicate performance against Westville, 71 to 50. Also, that victory gave Armstrong the right to meet Catlin for the title. The Armstrong quintet proved itself worthy by stopping the Catlin five, 81 to 71, thereby clinching the title. Proceeding from Chrisman with a perfect 10-0 record, the Trojans raised it to 11-0 by smashing Uniy High, 86 to 48. After downing Catlin by nineteen points, 91 to 72, Armstrong met a surprisingly pesky Ridgefarm team, but again proved their strength and downed the Bulldogs, 72 to 69. The Trojans then went into the county tournament as the only undefeated team in Vermillion County. The Trojans squeaked past Westville in a hair-raising overtime, 78 to 77. Armstrong then downed Potomac for the second time during the season, 55 to 47 in order to meet Hoopeston for the title. But then came a disheartening loss. The Trojans fell to Hoopeston, 54 to 49. Armstrong reverberated from that defeat by trimming the Bismarck Blue Devils, 53 to 43. Showing their early season poise, Armstrong scorched past a much improved Potomac Artesian team, 80 to 71, bringing the season record to 17-1. The Trojans then blitzed Westville for the third time during the season, 73 to 59. After dropping Jamaica, 78 to 61, Armstrong tripped Rankin, 61 to 47. The Trojans upped their season mark to 21-1 by dumping Young America in a 104 to 69 score. The mighty Trojans kept the ball rolling by routing the Homer Rockets, 99 to 58. Armstrong then scorched Milford, 106 to 73 to end the regular scheduled season undefeated. Armstrong met rival Potomac for the fourth time during the season and stepped over them, 68 to 59 in order to meet the Sheldon Rams for the district title. The outcome of that game was 70 to 59 in favor of Armstrong. Armstrong met Milford in the first game at the regional. The Bearcat's hope of defeating the Trojans by using slow-down tactics were stymied and the Trojans won, 31 to 26. In the second round, Armstrong came from fourteen points behind to trim the Central of Clifton Comets, 76 to 62 for the regional championship and the right to meet Paxton in the opening round of the Champaign sectional. Against 6' 8" Bill Hansen and his Mustangs, Armstrong remained in the state title run in a 52 to 51 cliff-hanger. But then the unknown "Little David" school met a tough Urbana five and went down fighting, 63 to 54. The Armstrong Trojans ended their 1965-66 season with 29 wins, 2 losses, and memories of Armstrong Township High School's greatest basketball team.
